

Before I received Jesus Christ into my life as Lord and Savior...

- State one thing that was sin in your life (ex: worry, addiction, anger, etc.)

- Illustrate this with specific examples from your own life (why were you angry, addicted, worried, etc?)

Share how you received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior and received His forgiveness (be specific, especially if you can remember where and when this happened):

Now that I have accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Lord and Savior...

- State how Jesus has changed what was formally wrong in your life (ex: how you don't worry any more, how you don't have addiction any longer, why you don't have anger any longer, etc.)

- Illustrate this with specific examples from your own life

- Possible concluding statement: "Now that I have received Jesus Christ into my life as Lord and Savior, I know that I will go to heaven when I die."
