

INFORMATION SHEET

Women of Valor is a program for women who are hungry for more of God.

This is for women who are not fully satisfied in their spiritual journey and want more of what God has for them. They are willing to seek God and be obedient to Him to get there. Through the Women of Valor program, women will have the opportunity to join with other women through sharing and accountability. This will be an opportunity for women to walk with other women who are following God's plan for their lives. Women of Valor gives women the tools they need to grow closer to God.

SPECIFICS ABOUT THE DISCIPLESHIP PROGRAM

- Women of Valor starts Thursday 9/8/2022
- The discipleship program meets once a week. Attendance is a priority for growth, and absences are discouraged unless unavoidable.
- Cost is $60.00 per person. This covers curriculum, resources, and commissioning materials.
- Women will follow and be expected to keep up with a daily bible reading plan.
- Women will memorize 2 scriptures a month
- Women will be encouraged to fully develop their prayer life through praying for the fellow women in WOV and attending prayer meetings.
- A weekly curriculum will be followed, and the expectation to complete the curriculum on a weekly basis.
- Women are expected to consistently attend weekly worship services.
- Women will be required to volunteer in a ministry in the church and in the community.
- Women will have an accountability mentor and be expected to be open and honest with the mentor assigned.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact Person(s): Jennifer Cassidy, WM Leader

Phone Number(s): 781-354-8186

Email Address: jennifercassidy06@gmail.com

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How does being in a discipleship program help me in my walk with God?

- Helps you grow in your relationship with God with an accountability aspect.
- Gives you a mentor/disciple relationship to enhance the growth process.
- The cost: time, resources, and hard work. It gives us “skin in the game”. It becomes a personal investment, and takes sacrifice. We work harder at things we have invested in.
- The willingness to invest in hard work and discipline reaps the reward of a life of walking with God, hearing His voice, and living the abundant life He has for you.

What is the time commitment involved in the program?

- Program starts _____and commissioning is_____.
- Attending weekly Women of Valor meetings, making it a priority on your calendar for the year.
- Attending Sunday morning worship service.
- Spending time daily in the Bible, on the curriculum chapter, in prayer, memorizing scripture, and journaling.
- Attending a prayer meeting once a month, serving in the church, and serving in the community at least once a month.

What is the financial commitment, and what does it cover?

- The program costs $ _____ .
$_____nonrefundable deposit + $_____payments for the first thirteen weeks. • This is the cost of the materials (curriculum, journal, supplemental materials, and commissioning gifts).

Why is serving others and prayer such an important part of Women of Valor?

- God calls us to lay down our lives and follow Him. He is asking us to make others more important than ourselves. There is no greater reward than serving others. WOV gives opportunities to do that.
- Prayer is going to be the key to hearing from God. In WOV, you will have the opportunity to pray for yourself and other women you will grow close to. Through prayer, you will see God not only enhance your relationship with Him, but also with other women.

Why will I be assigned a mentor during the program?

- Women who have completed the program (possibly twice) and apply for mentorship are assigned women to mentor. These women will pray for you and develop a relationship with you that will enhance your spiritual growth. These women will help you walk in God’s truth, and gently love you and guide you toward the truth of God’s word.

What do most women say the benefit was of going through the program?

- “I learned how to read and understand the Bible, and actually hear from God through reading His word.”
- “I have friendship with women who also seek God with all their heart, and will pray for me and with me.”
- “God showed me areas in my life that were standing in the way of me growing closer to Him. Women Of Valor gave me tools to walk away from areas in my life that were not pleasing to God.”
- “I now see more clearly the purpose God has for my life, because I worked hard and sacrificed to be closer to God.”